Thank you very much for this wonderful opportunity. What an effective Training! Everyday was special, everyday one tool. Oh my God! Unbelievable journey. It is an eye opener for me to use tools like Kahoot, Quizizz, OBS, Open Shoot Video Editor etc. I am very happy and really proud to say that I have learned all these tools and know how to use it. The presentations were very effective. Finally, I can say that I am waiting for next programme like this from your esteemed college. Thank you very much.

Workshop Report

Subject : New Librarianship - Practices for Post-COVID Situation

Introduction

The workshop on "New Librarianship: Practices for Post-COVID Situation" was organized to address the evolving Role of Librarians and library services in a world that has been significantly impacted by the COVID-19 pandemic. This report provides an overview of the workshop, its objectives, key takeaways, and the impact it is expected to have on the participants and the libraries they serve.

Objectives

The primary objectives of the workshop were as follows:

1. To discuss and understand the changing role of librarians in the post-COVID world, where digital technologies and remote access to information have become critical.
2. To explore new practices and innovative strategies that librarians can adopt to enhance library services, engagement, and accessibility.
3. To equip librarians with the skills and knowledge needed to adapt to the digital age and provide valuable resources and services in a post-pandemic world.
4. To foster a sense of community and collaboration among librarians, encouraging the sharing of best practices and experiences.

Workshop Highlights

Session 1: The Evolving Role of Librarians

The first session focused on the changing role of librarians as information specialists, educators, and technology facilitators. Participants discussed how librarians can adapt to the new information landscape and serve as guides to digital resources.

Session 2: Digital Resource Management

This session delved into the management of digital resources, including e-books, e-journals, and online databases. Participants explored techniques for effective cataloging, curation, and accessibility of digital materials, which have gained importance in a post-COVID setting.

Session 3: Remote Services and Outreach

The third session emphasized the need for librarians to provide remote services and engage with their patrons through online platforms and social media. Strategies for maintaining effective communication and outreach in a digital environment were discussed.

Session 4: Building Digital Literacy

In the context of the digital age, this session focused

Session 4: Building Digital Literacy & Collaboration and Networking

The final session highlighted on the role of librarians in promoting digital literacy among library users. Participants learned how to create educational programs and resources that enhance users' digital skills and the significance of collaboration and networking among librarians, institutions, and communities. Participants shared success stories and explored opportunities for collaboration in the post-COVID era.

Outcomes and Impact

The workshop achieved several positive outcomes and is expected to have a lasting impact:

1. Enhanced Understanding: Participants gained a deep understanding of the changing landscape of librarianship in a post-COVID world.

2. New Skills and Strategies: Librarians left with practical skills and innovative strategies to adapt to the digital age and meet the needs of library users.
3. Community Building: The workshop fostered a sense of community and collaboration among librarians, creating a platform for the exchange of ideas and best practices.
4. Digital Literacy Promotion: Participants are now better equipped to promote digital literacy and education within their user communities.
5. Improved Services: The workshop is expected to result in improved library services, both in-person and digitally, enhancing the overall library experience.

Conclusion

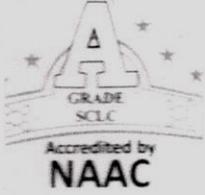

The "New Librarianship: Practices for Post-COVID Situation" workshop served as a crucial forum for librarians to come together, learn, and adapt to the changing needs and expectations of library users in a post-pandemic world. The knowledge and insights gained are expected to benefit libraries and their communities as librarians continue to evolve and play a vital role in providing access to information and promoting digital literacy. This workshop reaffirms the importance of librarians and libraries as dynamic, essential resources in the digital age.

Subject: Invitation as a Resource Person for Workshop to be conducted for Librarians of Marathwada Mitra Mandal Group

Respected Sir,

Being established through an inspiration of socially and educationally charged personalities, we, Marathwada Mitra Mandal established in 1967 serves with a motto 'Yethe Bahutanche Hit' (Welfare of Masses). And recently Marathwada Mitra Mandal's four colleges are accredited with 'A' Grade by National Assessment and Accreditation Council (NAAC).

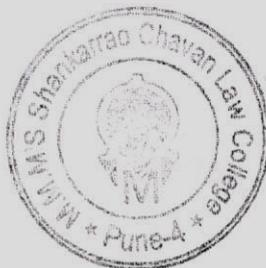

In order to cater the needs of dynamic education system, a Librarian has to update himself as per the changing tides of education scenario. Considering this need of hour, our Institute is hosting the workshop tilted as "New Librarianship: Practices for post Covid Situation". In this programme Librarians from Marathwada Mitra Mandal group will be the participants. This programme is arranged under the central IQAC Cell.

We are eagerly looking forward to receive you as Resource Person for the workshop to be conducted on 23rd December, 2020 in the Morning session on your area of expertise from 11 am to 1pm and be enlightened with your experience and wisdom gathered over a number of years in the field of Library science.

It will be a great honor for us if you accept our humble invitation.

Thanking You.

Report on "Covid Care Program with Art of Living Centre"
19th June 2021

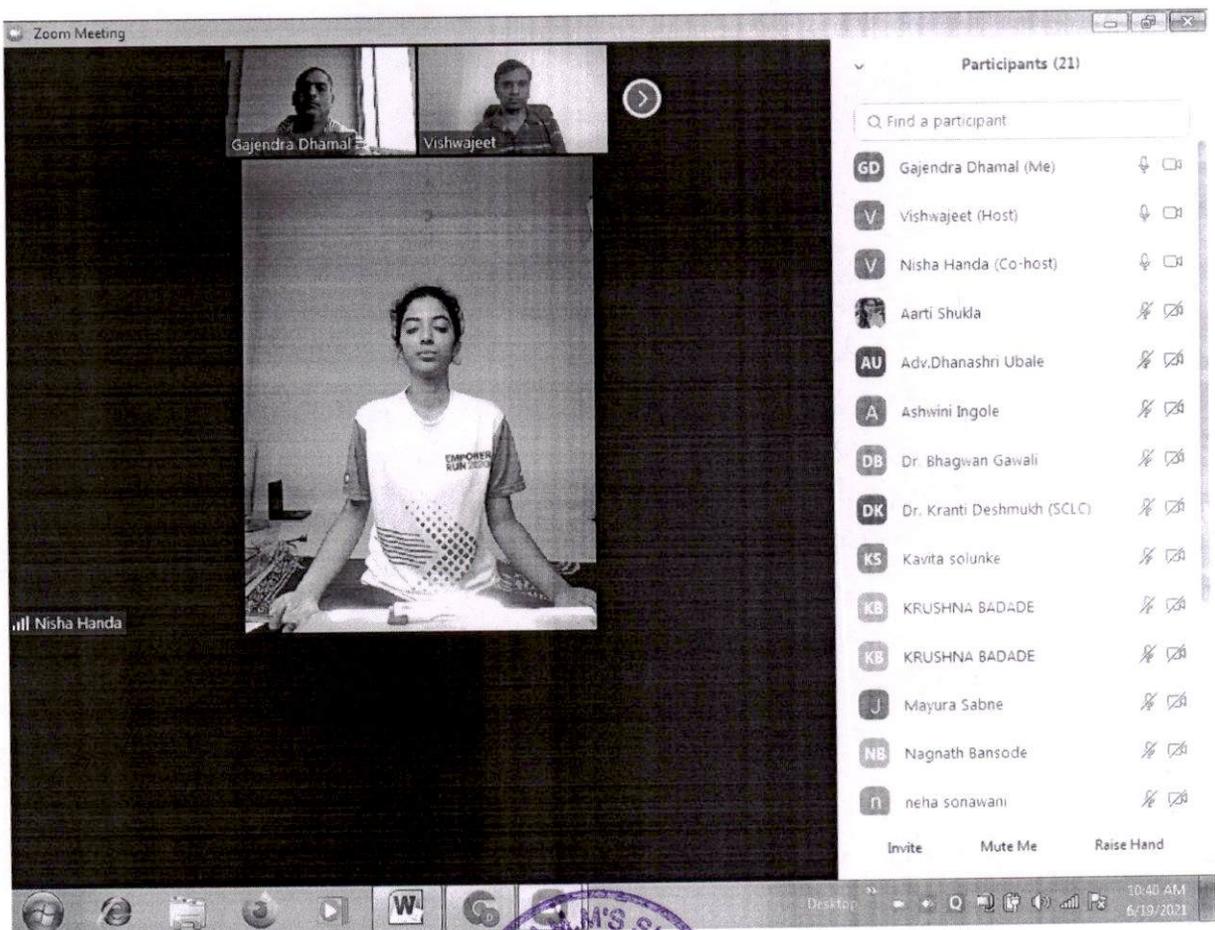

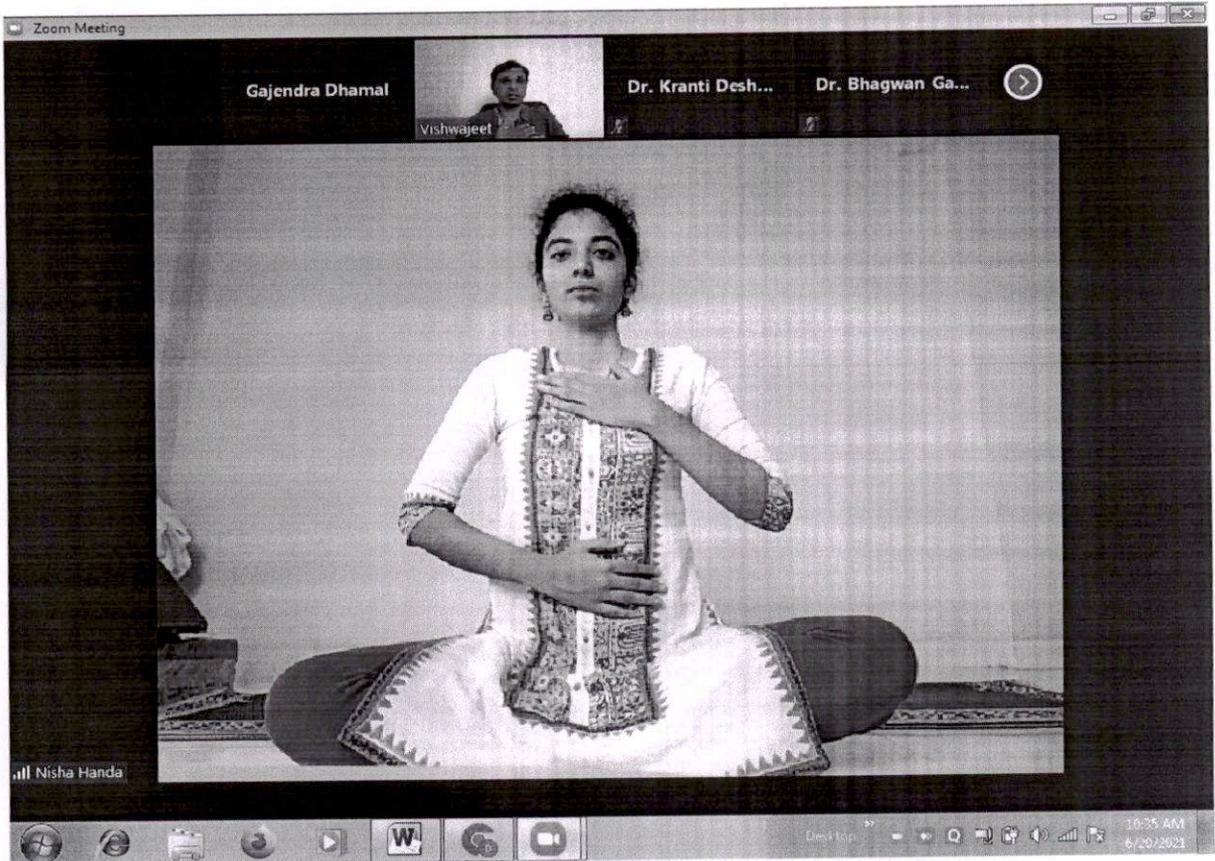

The NSS Department of MM's Shankarrao Chavan Law College, Pune in association with Art of Living Centre is organised three days 'Covid Care Program' between ,19th to 21st June 2021. Due to pandemic situation of corona we conducted various activity i.e. Yoga, meditation etc. through online mode. We followed all the necessary precautions during this pandemic situation.

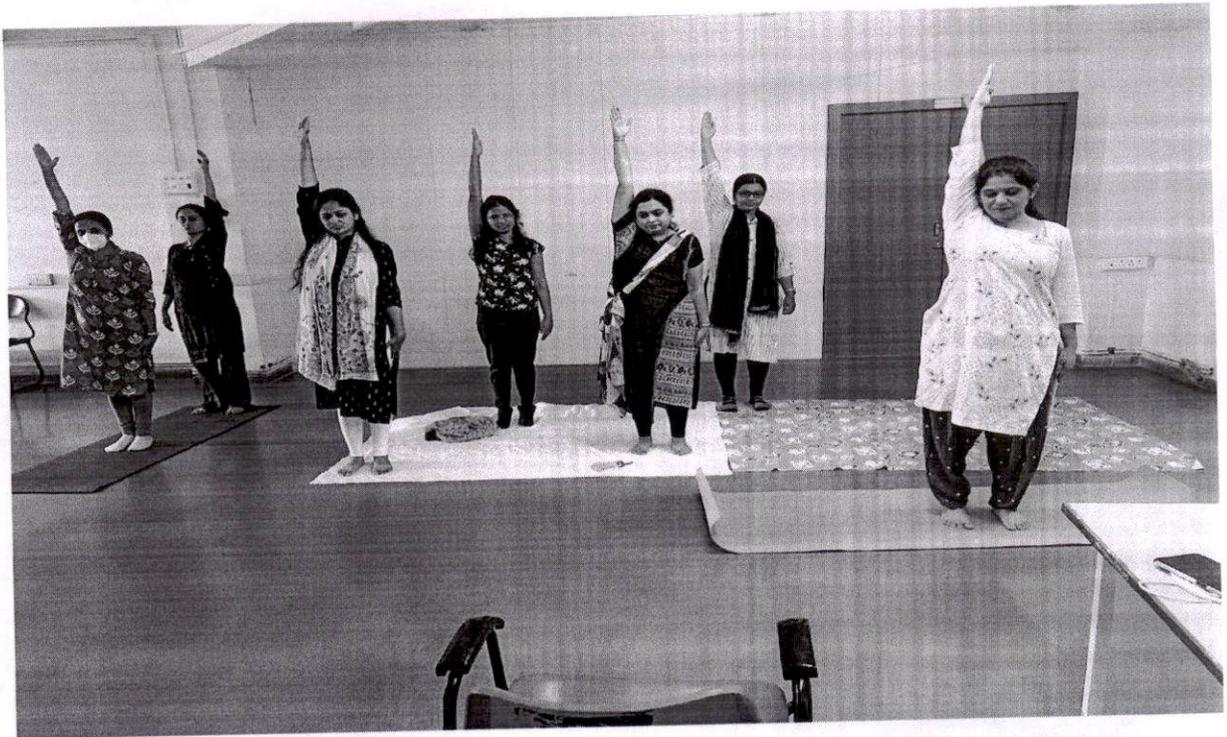

Principal Dr. Kranti Deshmukh madam along with all the teaching and Non teaching staff of Shankarrao Chavan Law College had participated in this three days 'Covid Care Program'. Mr. Vishwajeet Randhir coordinator of Art of Living Centre, Pune gave the information of about Importance of Yoga, meditation etc. in our day-today life. The trainer Ms. Nisha had given her valuable guidance to the staffs. Warm up exercises were taken and all the participants performed sitting and standing asanas , Pranayam, meditation etc. Importances of Yoga, meditation, asanas were explained simultaneously.

The exercises are good and useful to the staff. All the participants were excited and energetic. The coordinator of Art of Living Centre and Trainer encouraged us to practice regular yoga to remain fit and improve concentration. Regular practice of yoga and meditation will surely help us achieve a better life, physically, mentally and spiritually as well.

We all are participated in three days 'Covid Care Program' with a lot of eagerness and joy.
